

Environmental, Safety & Health (ESH) Policy

Wiwynn Corporation is committed to complying with environmental, safety and health regulations and other requirements from stakeholders, while implementing waste disposal and consultation and participation of workers to continuously improve environmental, safety and health performance, reduce environmental pollution and occupational accidents.